

Is it ever Ethical or Moral?

Ethical-Moral Junctions in Psychotherapy & Mental Health Services

2 hrs (ethics) online or in-person course

Beyond the 'Clinical-Ethical-Legal' standard in mental health. An online course on ethics, the significance of context and personal values & moral junction faced by mental health professionals

The course will:

- › Cover - Ethical & Moral Junction in Psychology
- › Differentiate - Clinical, Ethical, Legal, Moral-Values
- › Identify - Standard of Care in M,H, Services
- › Consider - Context, Client, Setting, Culture, Location
- › Include a short video for each of the 11 topics

Is it Ethical or Moral to bring about

- › Clients' deaths in the 'next' battle?
- › Execution of death-row inmates?
- › Torture of 'war' prisoners?
- › Racially based pathological diagnoses?
- › Denial of civil liberties for sex offenders?
- › Deportation of immigrants from US?
- › Denial of lifesaving organ transplants to 'receivers'?
- › Increased prisoners' risk for abuse or death?
- › Increased probability of patients' suicides?
- › Denying peoples' wish for 'End of Life' option?
- › Denying help for women patients seeking abortions?

Presenter: Ofer Zur, Ph.D.

Ethicist, Author, Instructor,
Forensic Psychologist, Critical Thinker

droferzur@drzur.com www.drzur.com

CV: <https://drzur.com/resume/>

Teaching: <https://drzur.com/teaching/>

