

THERAPEUTIC BOUNDRIES & ETHICS IN THE DIGITAL AGE - MONGOLIA

---

PRESENTED BY OFER ZUR, PHD

---

FOR MONGOLIAN
PSYCHOTHERAPISTS &
MENTAL HEALTH WORKERS

---

IN PERSON & ON ZOOM
MAY 11, 2024
11AM TO 2PM

---

SIMULTANEOUS
TRANSLATION FROM ENGLISH TO MONGOLIAN

Join Dr. Ofer Zur in a lively discussion covering:

- Ethical decision making in psychotherapy
- Differentiating boundary crossing & boundary violations
- Therapeutic Boundaries: Physical Touch, Gifts, Self-disclosure, Dual Relationships, Bartering, Home visits
- Comprehending the basic issues involved in TeleHealth/Online Therapy
- How the internet blurs professional boundaries
- Therapists 'Googling' clients & clients 'Googling' therapists
- Therapists' online transparency
- E-mail, text, and social media exchange
- Q & A

Dr. Zur has been teaching in the U.S. and abroad on topics related to ethics, critical thinking, therapeutic boundaries, the psychology of victims, gender and war. Dr. Zur is an APA Div 42 fellow and in 2021 he received authorization from the Minnesota Supreme Court to prepare an amicus brief regarding the standard of care for psychotherapy and counseling.

Visit: www.drzur.com

CONTACT

Purevsuren Davaadorj
(976) 99033603

psychologymeta@gmail.com

Sukhbaatar District
Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia