Dr. Ofer Zur, Ph.D.

Come join Dr. Zur as he discusses the richness that is presented through movies about psychotherapy & counseling in his cutting-edge presentation. Learn about hot-button topics, such as physical touch, gifts & . . . sex.

Discover the complexities of power and manipulation by therapists as well as by clients and learn about the modern phenomenon of therapists sexting with clients..

Get ready to see therapists portrayed on the big screen as effective, ineffective, pathetic, evil, unethical, controlling, gentle, sexually exploitative, & easily overpowered by manipulative clients.

The presentation will also delve into how clients are portrayed in cinema. They are often seen as more powerful than their therapists.

Be ready to be dazzled by the movies that we will review clips of including: Good Will Hunting, Analyze this, Mr. Robot, Hot Springs, In Treatment, What About Bob, Soprano's, Prince of Tide, and many more...
