OFER ZUR, PhD

Ofer Zur is traveling to Israel and the West Bank and will do a LIVE Zoom broadcast for Praxis from one of the cities he will be visiting on August 16th. In the West Bank, his guide will be Palestinian Mohammad Hussam Jubran, an Interfaith Peacebuilding tour guide. Ofer will also hopefully meet with the Refusinics, a controversial group in Israel on Breaking the Silence. He will visit Temple Mount and get as close to the Gaza fence as possible – the latter to deliver an apology for his role as a lieutenant in the Israeli Army (IDF) when he was a young soldier in Gaza. It was that experience that led to his leaving Israel for the U.S. He will be in some dangerous zones during his ten-day tour, but he is committed to report on what he sees and what he hears from people in the region. Of course, the threat from an expanded war is front and center with both Lebanon and Iran in the picture now. Don't miss this on-the-ground reporting and analysis!

Ofer Zur, PhD, is a licensed psychologist, fellow of the American Psychological Association (APA), lecturer, ethics consultant, and forensic expert. He was founder and director of the Zur Institute, which offers over 180 online continuing education courses for mental health practitioners. He also has been practicing psychotherapy in California for over 25 years. He is one of the top experts in the field of psychological ethics, applying a non-dogmatic approach to multiple relationships and therapeutic boundaries. Some of Ofer's areas of expertise are very important in our discussion today. Dr. Zur's website: www.drzur.com.
